UNWELCOME VISITORS.—From Rev. G. Martin, of this city, who returned, Monday evening, from a ten days' visit to the Fishing Creek region, we learn that two immense eagles are carrying death and destruction to the folds of sheep in that neighborhood. All efforts thus far to capture the feathered fanciers of "fine, fat mutton" have proved unsuccessful. Mc-Williams' wild cat hunters should be telegraphed for.

GROUND Hoo DAY .- Thursday next February 2d, is known as "ground hog day." We are told that on that day his hogship takes an airing, in other words, comes out of his hole, and if the sun is shining and the animal observes his shad? ow, he retires again to winter quarters and does not make his appearance in six weeks -the six weeks to be stormy winter weather. On the other hand, if this prophetic and observing animal does not see his counterpart on that day, we will be favored with pleasant weather the remainder of the winter season. No Loss Sustained.—We stated in yesterday morning's paper that several of the Insurance Companies in this city had sustained losses by the destruction of the w. R. Arthur, on the Lower Mississippi.

[[Now, it is contended here, that our interests and those of Wheeling are identi-cal in this matter. The railroad bridge cal in this matter. The railroad bridge here will secure a steady and safe transit over the river, and Wheeling will reap advantage from it as well as Bellaire. The importance Wheeling has acquired will attract trade, let the road terminate where it will. As our place grows up Wheeling gets the benefit. Besides, we will derive benefit from the road in the development of our mining interests, that Wheeling can never secure. The terminus of the road here is regarded by shrewd business men as better for Wheeling than at any other place this side of the river. But of this, more hereafter. We have a meeting appointed for Friday evening next, at the City Hall, where the whole subject will be discussed.
